New York Stock Market

New York, September 9.—it was not until ter the appearance of the government op report in the last hour of to-day's ading that the stock market showed aparance of activity, with a decisive movement downward, but business was unusually that, and fluctuations possessed little significance. Pending receipt of the crop figure, traders preferred to mark time. The all movement was upward, with a fair gree of activity.

Speculators bought stocks in the last hour the theory that while the showing of the racep, the principal object of the crop, the principal object of the general, the crop figures about et expectations. less excitement, while the action of prices suggested rather a reactionary sentiment after the big advance, and, in view of improved weather reports. October contracts leading the per bale above the low level on Saturday on an early advance, or within six points of the high records made shortly after the publication of last week's builted government crop report, but subsequent fluctuations were irregular, with market easing off from the best and closing steady net one point lower to four points higher.

The afternoon decline carried prices four to eight points netseliower, or a shade under the 13-cent level, for Detember contracts, but was followed by railies of seven or eight points on cavering in the last few minutes.

New Orleans, September 2—General rains in Oklahonna and more or less-scain in Texas checked the advancing tendency of cotton to-Jay, and brought about a moderate reaction. Hears have suffered such reverses of late that they were cautious, and did not attempt to take full advantage of the change in weather conditions in the Western belt. They claimed that the drought was completely broken, and that none of it would result from the moisture. The bulls contended that the rains came too late to be of much good, and also that picking would be delayed.

On the opening the tone was steady, and prices were six to seven points up.

For brief intervals the market stood stock still, so to speak; in the early session a sharp advance carried Mexican Petroleum from 66 to 70. Little public interest resulted, as bankers are reported to be discriminating against the stock as collateral. A sympathetic advance lifted California Petroleum to 271-4.

About noon a sharp attack was made About noon a sharp attack was made on prices by a noted professional short trader. Amalgamated Copper was driven to 77, where it met stout support; Steel to 621-4, and Union Pacific below 149 1-2. The moment this selling ceased the market railied slowly.

In the afternoon a sharp advance in Peeple's Gas carried the price to 124, a 2-noint advance.

Peeple's Gas carried the price to 124, a 2-point advance.

Speculative interest centred on the government crop report. The condition of corn on September 1 of 65.1 gives an indicated crop of 2,351,000,000 bushels. This was about as expected. Spring wheat, with a showing of 75.3 and a production of all wheat of 754,000,000 bushels, suggests the largest crop of wheat ever raised.

The declaration of the regular dividend on New York Central evoked slight surprise, not altogether agree-

It is a fortunate coincidence that while the figures from the govern-ment report are being made public fine rains were reported in the Southwest, indicating that the drought has at last been effectively broken. While this New York. September 3 - Cotton goods markets rule very strong, with prices rising in men's wear markets spring initial orders have been about large enough to supply mills, with orders for half the machinery for the next hinety days. Fall goods are in better demand. Yarns are very firm.

metal is firm at 16.3-4, with heavy sales recorded for November and December delivery. Amalgamated Copper closed at the best figures for the day, and other copper issues showed a firmness that indicates a higher range of prices. that indicates a higher range of prices.

The duliness and strength in the market for Steel common indicate how completely the market has gotten away from the floor trader. There is an undertone of strength which some market observers interpret as a forerunner of higher prices.

With buoyancy in Steel, activity and optimism in the Copper group, and the probability that shareholders will be rive some benefit from the large amount of cash in the treasury of the Union Pacific, it is hoped that speculative interest will revive and the public purchase stocks.
